

THE DOG LOGS

Press Quotes

"Has audiences howling with laughter" Sydney Morning Herald

"The monologue themselves vary in length from about a minute to ten minutes, but each one is exactly its right length. They're just perfect; the writing is terrific, by turns witty, very emotionally engaging at times, almost poetically structured in some cases; sad, tragic, funny: in short a really super show" Geoffrey Milne, ABC FM Melbourne

"...a dead set winner...this wickedly witty canine caper of a show could play on tour in front of bars across the nation forever...I LOVED it!" The Messenger

"Let me recommend THE DOG LOGS...amusing, lively and tightly directed" Sunday Age

"a diverse variety of canine breeds, ages and personalities...all beautifully realised. In turns funny, poignant and endearing, much like the creatures that inspire them, the tales have more a wag than a sting in the tail. You don't need to be 'a doggy person' to get real enjoyment out of this show (I'm not, and I did!)" Buzzcuts Fringe Reviews

"A treasure of a show" Melbourne Age

"These dogs will bark their way into your heart, so get out of your kennel and go walkies" The Messenger

"The insight into the minds of these particular dogs, coupled with several musical interludes ensures that not only do you walk away from the Dog's Logs with an amused grin on your face, but that you will never underestimate the character of dogs or look at your dog the same way again." Buzzcuts

"Munga the Dingo and Alfred the Stud will have you howling." DB Magazine

"I loved the first version, but this is even better...this is definitely a 'must see show'. I award it Best Of Breed" Rip It Up Magazine

Performance History

2000	La Mama, Melbourne
2001	Darlinghurst Theatre, Sydney
2001	North Melbourne Town Hall, Melbourne Fringe Festival, Melbourne
2001	Bakehouse Theatre, Festival of One, Adelaide
2002	Darlinghurst Theatre, Sydney – return season
2002	Soapbox Theatre, Adelaide Fringe Festival, Adelaide – return season
2004	Australian National Tour

For further information please contact: Kate Bradstreet: Tour Producer e: kate@mpproductions.com.au